

The 3rd

Tyndale Biblical Symposium

Join us for featured talks by Tyndale faculty and alumni about their current research.

Mary Conway

PhD Candidate, McMaster Divinity College
Lecturer, Tyndale Seminary

"In the Eyes of Yahweh": The Role of Linguistic Evaluation Theory in Discerning Right from Wrong in OT Narrative.

Daniel Driver

Assistant Professor of Old Testament and Associate Dean, Tyndale University College
Psalm 2 at Antioch: The Hermeneutics of a Christological Controversy

Edward Ho

Assistant Professor, Chinese Online School of Theology
PhD Candidate, McMaster Divinity College
MDiv 1999, Tyndale Seminary
Reconsidering the Arguments of Job's Three Friends in the First Cycle.

Rebecca Idestrom

Associate Professor of Old Testament,
Tyndale Seminary
God's Glory in the Book of Ezekiel.

John Kessler

Professor of Old Testament,
Tyndale Seminary
The Nature of the Relationship between Temple and Covenant in Haggai 1:1-15

Benjamin Reynolds

Assistant Professor of New Testament,
Tyndale University College
The Otherworldly Mediators in 4 Ezra and 2 Baruch

Ian Scott

Associate Professor of New Testament,
Tyndale Seminary
"On a Colt and a Donkey": Metaphor and History in Matthew's Gospel

TYNDALE
University College & Seminary

Saturday, Feb. 4th, 2012

9:30am - 4:00pm

go.tyndale.ca/symposium2012

Van Norman Worship and Study Centre

All are welcome. Registration is free.